WHERE

WHAT

Domestic abuse survivor Siv Cotton, former model and reality star, is using her successful nail bar and beauty spa to give back. Her efforts will be recognized by Calabasas Mayor David Shapiro with a certificate of honor.

Four survivors in the Safe Passage Steps program, a domestic violence charity, have been chosen for complete makeovers. They will get their nails, hair and makeup done, then be dolled up in Oscar style dresses provided by Safe Passage. The ladies will then head to the "red carpet" for professional photos and red carpet interviews.

On Oscar night, Siv's supporter and friend Sarah Radfar will host an Oscar Party at her estate to collect dresses and donations for the women of Safe Passage. Make up is provided by Nu Esthetic Spa, hair by Salon Nuvo and nails by Renewal Nail Bar.
